

Taraloka re-opens its doors in October (we hope!) to run smaller, socially distanced retreats with stringent hygiene precautions in place. They are mostly fully booked – but we'll continue to run online home retreats and events, so hopefully there will be something for everyone.

Things can change so quickly at the moment! If you'd like the latest information on social distancing and other precautions we are taking on residential retreats, do email us.